

Colloquium RTG Ambivalent Enmity, winter term 2024/2025

HCTS, 400.02.12, 2- 4 pm

14.10.2024

Enis Barja

Unpacking the Landscape of Ransomware Attacks on the Finance Sector: Exploring Interdependencies of Disclosure and Concealment between Hackers and their Targets

21.10.2024

Mastao Tanaka

Peace through Commerce? The Middle Class and the Ambivalence of Liberal Economic Ideas in Modern Lebanon, c. 1860-1930

28.10.2024 9.30am-5pm

Monica Juneja-Huneke / Johannes Becke

Workshop – Debates on Antisemitism in Scholarship and the Arts

Hochschule für Jüdische Studien

04.11.2024

Mariëlle Hesselink

Conspiracy Therapy: The Satanic Ritual Abuse Conspiracy Theory in Contemporary Psychotherapeutic Practices

11.11.2024

Paula Simon

Strangers or Enemies? The Yugoslav 'Gypsy' in theory and practice 1918-1945

18.11.2024

Sybille Große / Laura Gärtner

Vorstellung Horizon Projekt Arenas

Ana Yara Postigo Fuentes (HHU Düsseldorf)

Dimitra Niaouri (Uni Cergy Paris)

25.11.2024 – starts at 1pm!

Anita Markmiller

Between fear and fascination. Visualising maritime conflicts

Laura Gärtner

From Raw Data to an Analysable Corpus – The Process of Linguistic Corpus Preparation

02.12.2024

Filippo Vaccaro

An Ambivalent island. Cultural and religious interactions in 14th century Venetian Crete

09.12.2024

José Brunner

Interne Veranstaltung

16.12.2024

Lars Dickmann

Weaponising Nature: Applied Entomology, Biological Control and Environmental Thought, c. 1920-1950. A case study of a gambir plantation in Sumatra

13.01.2025

Alessia Colonnelli

Comprehending Post-independence Amazigh Activism in France through the Lens of Ambivalent Enmity: from Politization to the Nuance of Enmity

20.01.2025

Muhammad Usman

Wagah Border Discourses: From Partition to Present day Performance

27.01.2025

Tom Würdemann

Problems of Periodization: How to retroactively read paradigm shifts into the writings of Palestinian intellectuals

03.02.2025

Guanghou Zhou

The effect of metastereotype activation on out-group hostility among Chinese immigrants: the mediating effect of collective narcissism and moderating effect of acculturative orientation